LOCAL NEWS.

The flags were freely flying to the north-east trades this morning. Weather pleasant.

The street cleaning contingent of the Government is doing excellent appreciable work.

Do not forget the performance by the Hawaiian National Band this evening at the Hotel grounds.

The latest addition to the Monowai list are Dr. Benjamin Friedlander and Hon. C. W. Ashford.

The American, so-called, League, should not confound the 17th of January with the 17th of March.

The influenza has taken its departure. Tears are no longer so copiously shed and speech is plainer.

The steamer Monowai from the Colonies for San Francisco was not telephoned as the Holomua went to press.

"Dick" Day is still in durance. His case of embezzlement will be before Judge Robertson on Saturday next.

Mr. Frank Pratt, ex-Hawaiian Consul General at San Francisco, is reported as being in a very poor state of health.

It is now a settled fact that the schooner Norma will sail for Fanning's Island. She sailed this afternoon having as a passenger Mr. David Greig one of the owners of the island.

"A shark! A shark! my shekels for a shark!" is the cry of the local agent of the Hawaiian exhibit at the Midwinter Fair.

The brutal assault case of the "bad man," Ferreira has been continued until Tuesday of next week.

Mr. "Billy" Sheldon the former strong P. G. supporter is reported as having been received from further duty at Kahului Maui.

Mrs. Vina King the hard hitter on the harder head of Geo. Washington will appear to-morrow for trial before Judge Robertson.

The usual monthly meeting of the Honolulu Ice Co., was held yesterday afternoon at the office of Mr. T. W. Hobron. The results shown were satisfactory.

The Hawaiian Electric Light Co., hope to have their customers happy, in a flood of light and with ample motor power, this evening. Success is wished by the Holomua.

The Honolulu Cricket Club will hold their meeting on the 23rd inst. at the Hotel. A full attendance is desired as the date is made in advance.

Lawyer A. L. Carter presented, and carried to a successful issue a civil case, in the Police Court yesterday. Hon. C. W. Ashford was the opposing attorney.

The skiff stolen "or strayed," from Mr. Fred Harrison, has been cast up, again, by the water, and is now in the possession of the owner. $5 and costs.

A well deserved compliment to a painstaking artist would be shown by a benefit to Miss Rose Albu. The suggestion is spontaneous and has no motive power but that of appreciation.

"Spy alley" is the popular appellation given the entrance to the rear of the Waikiki side of the Central Union Church, on account of it being the rendezvous for the people of that ilk.

Mr. G. F. McLeod bookkeeper of the Metropolitan Meat Market, was married to Miss Virginia Gilliland, last evening, at the residence of Mr. E. Faxon Bishop. His Lordship the Bishop of Panopolis officiated.

Kerosene oil is now quoted, by Chinese dealers, at $3.25 per case. The price at which "missionary" houses sell, to favored customers, is known and the information is very useful, for future reference.

Mr. C. Johnson the chief carpenter in the employ of the I. L. S. S. Co., was accidentally, and very badly, injured this afternoon by reason of a sliver of timber being pushed in his groin. Competent attendance at the Queen's Hospital has permitted the removal of the injured man to his residence.

The utter failure of the Advertiser as an honest reflex of local happenings was most noticeably presented this morning. Were it not that the Christmas season had passed-it would be easily supposable that its writers were practising in writing "fairy" tales, for children.

Our Band.

Music has the power to touch the feelings of those "to the manner born" will be discoursed this evening by the popular players who comprise the Hawaiian National Band. The general public, strangers as well as old residents, are promised a concert, a musical concert, and should be present if they love music.

1. March—"Columbian Guard (new)".....Brooke
 2. Overture—"William Tell".....Rossini

THAT DAMNABLE PLOT.

H. A. JUVEN VS. E. G. HITCHCOCK.

An Open Letter.

Mr. E. G. Hitchcock:

Since the publication of my statement in which I disclosed the schemes which resulted in the dynamite episode on Miller Street, and in the threatening placard on the gate of Claus Spreckels' residence, I have waited patiently to hear that you, the Marshal of the country, whom I publicly have accused of being aware of the plots referred to and of smothering the truth had come forward and either denied the allegations made or offered some explanation to the people of Hawaii who now is wondering what kind of a man and an official you are.

You have seen fit to appear in print, and without specification but on general principles called me a liar and a man in whom you reposed no confidence. When you speak about me in that manner, I consider it necessary to refresh your memory as your own veracity seems to be very much open to doubts. You deny that you ever offered me the position of Deputy-Sheriff of Maui. Did you not tell one of your prominent officers that you were going to send me out of town? Did you not tell him the reasons why you intended to do so? Did you not tell me to prepare myself to go to Maui at a certain time and at the same time told others behind my back that I was not going to get the job? And did you not on the day when my affidavit was published in the Holomua send one of your pro-men to me and ask me to drop it? I am ready to substantiate what I am saying, Mr. Marshal; can you say the same?

Your other remarks that you never reposed confidence in me is equally surprising. When the expedition to Kalalau was being prepared, I was the first man who volunteered to go. Did you not in the presence of the Deputy-Attorney-General state that you desired me to remain in town, because you needed someone here that you could depend on? A remarkable way in which to show your want of confidence! When you promised me the Deputy Sheriff's office on Maui, did you have no confidence in me? A remarkable head of a department you must be Mr. Marshal! When you and W. O. Smith, even after my dismissal by you from the force, signed a commission for me as a member of the Citizen's Guard you seem at least to have had sufficient confidence in me to allow me to have fought for you, or you would hardly have furnished me with a commission, badge, arms and ammunition. Whatever you may think about me the leaders of the Provisional Government evidently had sufficient confidence in me when the government was in its infancy and you were snugly lying back in Hilo waiting for developments because you risked your precious neck in Honolulu, because I was the man whom they trusted with the Police Guards on the first night of the revolution, but as I say that was before you arrived on the scene and found that I was "unworthy of confidence and a liar." I have received the following letter from you and complied with your demand:

Marshal's Office,
Honolulu, Dec. 15th, 1893.

H. A. Juen Esq.
Sir:—You are hereby requested to at once deliver to Mr. Geo. Green, the bearer, the rifle and 40 rounds of ammunition delivered to you as one of the "citizen's guard."

You are also requested to hand your Police Commission given you as member of the citizen guard to Mr. Green as the same has been cancelled.

Mr. Green is authorized to give you a receipt for the rifle and ammunition.

Yours,
E. G. HITCHCOCK,
Marshal, Haw. Isl.

Yes, Sir, I complied with your demand and I only desire to call your attention to the fact that the rifle which I returned to you was the one with which I turned out, the first man, on the 17th of January 1893, while you and your clique were out of sight, and all to help you to climb into a position higher than any of you heretofore have held in this country or ever will hold again.

You say that I came begging for work of you. I never begged in my life Mr. Marshal, but I am not ashamed to work when work is obtainable and I believe that the men who took their chances in supporting those high in authority now are entitled to some consideration. You evidently think differently. You finish your slurs and insinuations against me by the wholly irrelevant statement that I abused my sick wife. That lie is simply the fruit of the bitter vindictiveness which you feel towards me, because I did not hesitate in telling the truth and proving to the world, what kind of man it is that our immaculate government clothes with high authority. You know nothing of my dead wife or my relations to her, but you do not hesitate in speaking from hearsay, and publish for facts, anything that might tell against me and soothe your "Christian spirit."

I shall not occupy more of the valuable space of the Holomua, but only add a letter from the American League of which I was one of the organizers and of which I was an officer, which may prove to the world that truth is not welcome even among men who boast of being free Americans.

Honolulu, Dec. 15, 1893.
H. A. Juen,
Sir:—I am authorized by the Executive Committee to notify you that your name has been dropped from the roll book of the American League for conduct unbecoming a member of the League in publishing the statement that you did through the columns of a Royalist paper.

Respt. yours,
W. D. HAMILTON,
Secretary.
Whenever now, Mr. Marshal, you shall find it convenient to bring forward the proofs of the accusations, you have seen fit to make against me you shall find me ready to meet you on all and every point. Until then I can only brand your unsubstantiated statements as malicious falsehoods.

I am yours etc.
HENRY A. JUVEN.

The Phonograph is kept busy by the many visitors both old and young who enjoy listening, to both the old and new songs.

Dead.

When, in the course of events, it becomes necessary for a newspaper reporter to make mention of the dissolution of ties which have bound any member of this mundane sphere to this earth, earthly; it is generally with feelings which are somewhat in touch with those who are associated with as relations, or even friends, of the dear departed. On a late occasion, one in humble sphere, became the byword of the public on account of the notoriety attached to it by its being an innocent participant in a naval imbroglio. To-day, sad to say that poor, innocent creature, is dead! It will never be known as the cat that that came back for the "Marine Cat" is buried.
